†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(c) whether the number of educated unemployed has been in the rise in the country;

(d) if so, the action thereof, State-wise; and

(e) the action proposed by Government to effectively check growing unemployment in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING, MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF STATISTICS AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS AND PUBLIC GRIEVANCES OF THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI ARUN SHOURIE): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) National Sample Survey Organisation (NSSO) have published a report in March, 1997 entitled "Employment and Unemployment in India, 1993-94" based on data collected in the 50th round survey on Employment and Unemployment & Consumer Expenditure, conducted during July, 1993 to June, 1994. The Report contains Labour force participation patterns for India.

(c) The Unemployment rates worked out by the Planning Commission based on NSSO Survey results indicate that the educated unemployment rates has declined from 11.86% in 1987-88 (43rd round NSS) to 9.56% in 1993-94 (50th round NSS).

(d) and (e) Ninth Plan aims at bringing down the unemployment rate from 1.87% in the 8th Five Year Plan to 1.66% in the Ninth Plan and to a negligible level by the end of 10th Plan. The strategies for achieving the same include orientation of rural employment programmes towards rural infrastructure development programmes, increasing productivity, accelerating replanting activities, rapid expansions in non-traditional areas, etc. in the plantation sector, integrated development of marine and land fishery, modernisation of textile sector, promotion of village industries, increasing employment potential in construction and services sector, promoting self-employment in tiny and small units, etc.
